

EDITORIAL BOARD

It gives us an immense pleasure to present before you the First Monthly Editorial of our Newsletter entitled 'Vidya Vaarta' on the auspicious occasion of the Marathi New Year 'Gudhi Padwa'. Vidya Vaarta is the brainchild of our very dynamic Trustee of Vidya Pratishthan Hon. Sou. Sunetra Ajit Pawar who is of the opinion that the highlights of this magnanimous organization which comprises 29 institutions spread out over Indapur, Someshwar, Bhigwan, Supe, Pune, Bhor and Baramati should disseminate to every stakeholder that is the Management, Teaching, Non Teaching Staff, Parents and Students.

Vidya Vaarta will be a living document of the Vidya Pratishthan's colourful mosaic of intellectual contributions of activities, seminars, guest lectures, experiences and much more. This year being the Golden Jubilee Year of the Institution, Vidya Pratishthan is now geared to launch itself on to a greater heights by empowering each and every member of the schools and colleges.

The organization was founded in 1972 as a non profit professional body with the primary goal to cater to the needs of children coming from the agricultural belt. In pursuit of developing standards, the Visionary Padmavibhushan Hon. Shri. Sharadchandraji Pawar Saheb has realized the needs and wants of the society and provided the state of art facilities and infrastructure for the citizens of Baramati. Baramati today is rightly called as an Educational Hub. To accelerate the proceedings of the institution, Honourable Executive Committee Members have introduced the project, VP Talks' The first guest speaker was Col. Sudhir Sinha who delivered a motivational talk on Virtual platform and encouraged the employees of the institution to find creative ways to solve the problems and to be passionate.

We are highly obliged to the President of Vidya Pratishthan Hon. Shri. Sharadchandraji Pawar Saheb, Vice President Hon. Adv. Prabhune, Trustees of Vidya Pratishthan Hon. Ajitdada Pawar, Hon. Sou.
