

EDITORIAL BOARD

The month of September was indeed a festive month - Ganesh Celebration, Janmashtami and the Vibrant Navratri Festivals. At Vidya Pratishthan along with the festive mood - accolades in various fields have been achieved by both staff and students. The most noteworthy being the publication of books, 'Soft Skills for Engineers' and 'Teaching Chemistry' by the faculty.

In the month of September the English teachers of all the schools have been trained in reading comprehension skills-under the aegis of Faculty Development Programme. We wish to inform you all that in the first term (March to October) around 7 training sessions have been organized for the teaching fraternity of Vidya Pratishthan under the able guidance of the Registrar-Hon. Col. Shrish Kumboj. The teachers have been trained in Managing Learning Gaps in Maths and English. Early Childhood Care in Education, Project Based Learning, Reading Skills, Theatre in Education and Classroom Leadership. Similarly Faculty Development Programmes and career guidance have also been an integral part of the professional and non professional colleges.

Various Competitions for schools and colleges have been organized as part of the Golden Jubilee Year Celebration. This initiative has provided an opportunity for all the students and staff to collaborate with each other and exchange and trade ideas.

The Alumni and Placement Cell of Vidya Pratishthan is also very active - truly it has helped the students of Vidya Pratishthan to gain new experience and foster professional development. Students have also been able to get an in-depth look into the professional world and have had an opportunity to interact with industry professionals.

Vidyavaarta - has endeavored to feature the news of all its institutions and the Editorial Team would like to thank the Principals / Directors for their contributions.
